

Sequences real-time art festival 12-21. October 2007

SEQUENCES real-time art festival will be held for the second time 12-21st of October. The festival lives from the creative unfiltered energy of the artists in Iceland and their international network. SEQUENCES focuses on time-based art and links especially music and performance art with the visual arts, such as video, vj-ing and performance. The festival will take place in different locations in the city center of Reykjavík, accompanied by exhibitions and video/film nights.

The artists participating this year range from some of the most respected Icelandic artists including: Magnús Pálsson, Steingrímur Eyfjörd and Ragna Róbertsdóttir to some of the best known contemporary artists like The Icelandic Love Corporation, Ragnar Kjartansson and newcomers Kolbeinn Hugi Höskuldsson and MoMs. Accompanying the Icelanders are a wide range of foreign artists all working with time based art such as Doug Henderson (US) and Mader| Stublić | Wiermann (DE). The venues this year are very diverse and range from The National gallery of Iceland to cutting edge spaces like The Lost Horse gallery. Again the public space will additionally stage various activities.

Sequences collaborated with music festival Airwaves 2006 and this year it will be even more so. Not only in events, like creating visuals for concerts and performances/music happenings but also in promotion. Over this period of time in October the city will be filled with music and art cross bordering with each other.
